Dear Class of 2010,

Ted Kennedy, Massachusetts' senior senator died on August 26, 2009, just as your senior year was beginning. His death marked the end of an era that shaped the last half of the 20th century and will continue to shape the 21st century. I want to take a brief page of your yearbook to remind you or perhaps inform you about what this "lion of the Senate" accomplished in his forty-seven year career as a senator from 1962 – 2009 and what an influence and effect he has had on all of us. I hope as you read this you will see in yourselves what I see in you, a group of generous, fair, open-minded, bright young men and women who have embraced much of what was the best of the cultural change that took place over the past fifty years.

Early in his career, in 1964, Ted Kennedy championed the Civil Rights Bill that prohibited discrimination in government, in public facilities, and employment. Later, during the Vietnam War Era, he supported the Voting Rights Extension Act that gave 18 year olds the right to vote. He was a strong supporter of the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990 that prohibited discrimination against and provided accommodations for individuals with disabilities. Ted Kennedy supported the Title IX Act that ended discrimination against women in education and especially in school-based athletics. Senator Kennedy supported gay rights and sought funding for HIV/AIDS prevention once the specific information about that issue was known. Ted Kennedy also worked to outlaw hate crimes, to raise the minimum wage, and to ensure pay equity for women. All of these political decisions have had very real effects on your life. I take great pride in the fact that many of you register to vote while you are still in high school, support gender equality in AHS athletics, and insist on equal respect for all people, and especially members of the AHS community.

In 1968, Frank Mankiewicz, a journalist and press secretary, said of Ted Kennedy, "He has a commitment not just to civil rights in any racial or other aspects, but in terms of the forgotten and the outcasts and the dispossessed, that's his instinct." That's what I'd like you to take from this essay. Don't get sidetracked by the corrosive liberal / conservative bickering of so much political talk today; embrace the importance of the fact that no matter what your political leanings, each of us has a responsibility to respect and assist the least fortunate in our community and our world. I see many of you do that every day here at AHS, I urge you to continue to work towards positive change, not for punitive or discriminatory measures, as you become adults and leaders.

At the end of his unsuccessful campaign for president in 1980, Ted Kennedy ended his speech to the Democratic Convention with the following words, "For me, a few hours ago, this campaign came to an end. For all those whose cares have been our concern, the work goes on, the cause endures, the hope still lives, and the dream shall never die." As the Camelot Era of the Kennedys comes to an end with the death of Ted Kennedy, it is my hope that, you, Members of the Class of 2010, will continue the work and keep the dreams and hopes alive of a bygone generation, and, that you will push yourselves and your representatives to make America a better place for all of its citizens.

Sincerely,

Chas. Skidmore

Charles Skidmore, Principal

These four years of high school will always hold a very special place in my heart. There have been both good and bad etimes and I want to thank my parents, friends and teachers for always being there for me. I would also like to give Ms Williams a special thanks. I don't think I would have made it without her help. Good luck Class of 2010!

Teacher Messages 2010

Dear Class of 2010
Congratulations on your hard work and your wonderful achievements.
May the years ahead be filled with great success.
Ms Sheehy

History's page is hardly carved in stone. The future's here, we are it, we are on our own. If the game is lost then we are all the same, no one left to place or take the blame. So the kids they dance they shake their bones and the politician's throwing stones. The wheel turns and it can't slow down, can't go back and can't stand still.
Good luck....Mr. Dever

Congratulations Class of 2010
I wish you a future filled with success and happiness.
Mr. DiLoreto

Je vous souhaite beaucoup de succes et beaucoup de bonheur, Classe 2010.
Madame Lahey

Hurray! You did it! Congratulations on all your hard work. I wish you the very best as you move into the new phase of your lives.
Ms Brauner

Never have I met a group of people with such kind, exuberant spirits. While your academic, athletic and artistic accomplishments are outstanding , and surely things to be proud of, what strikes me most about the Class of 2010 is your ability to simply be good, caring people without losing your sense of spunk. Selfishly, I will miss you all because you have made my first two years at AHS an absolute joy. I will miss the friendly hellos, your effortless way of getting along with one another, your enthusiasm, and your ability to make each other (and me) smile and laugh on a daily basis. Keep creating these little joys every day. Be well.

TRACK 1

Our Last Will and Testament ~ 2010

WE, the Class of 2010 at Arlington High School, Arlington, Massachusetts, being of sound mind and body, do declare this our Senior Will.

Article I.

We direct our executor to drop our outstanding debts owed to Arlington High School which may include, but are not limited to: missing books, "lost" term papers, missed gym classes, old hold slips, detentions, mcas results, senior packets, labs, tests, and other requirements.

Article II.

We, as members of the class of 2010, do leave to this most esteemed institution of secondary learning and to the classes following in the twenty-first century, our many memories of the past four years: too many tests, no student parking, the attendance policy, tardy detentions and all of our many contributions to Arlington High School and to society in particular.

I, Carolyn Adams, leave the trombone section to Jeremy Lee

I, Sara D. Ahmed, leave the LitMag to the next generation of Arlington writers and artists.

I, Connor Allen, leave skateboarding breaks at the courts to Ryan Bartoloni.

I, Eddie Alvarez, leave the heart, power and soul of The Line to John McDonald and Sean Fagan.

I, Hannah Anderson, lovingly leave this school to my incoming freshman sister, Kelsey.

I, Kristina Arruda, leave my most difficult math problems to my brother DJ Arruda to solve.

SURVIVAL.....

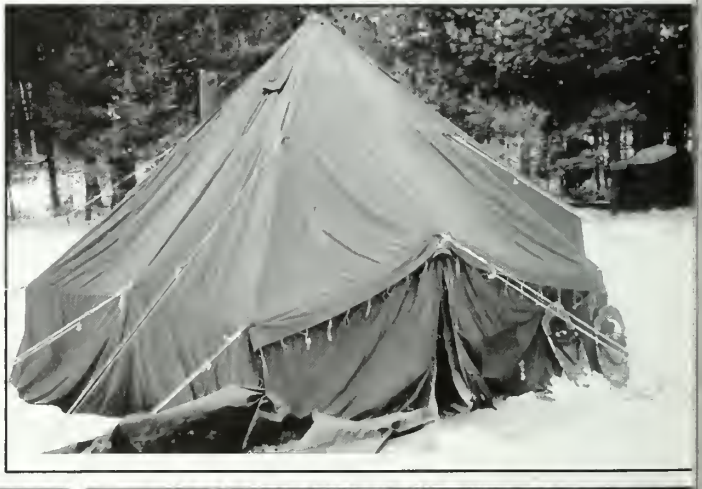

Survival is perhaps the most unique program offered at Arlington High School. This year completes 39 consecutive years of offering the survival program. Students complete an intense experience that tests their character as they faced the winter winderness first hand, alone, and with minimal equipment for 4 days and 3 nights. It is an inward journey. To succeed, students must be self-reliant, resourceful, creative and tough as they face uncertainty, discomfort, islolation and hunger. These are truly skills that sutdents will need as they transition into adult life and face the uncertain 'wilderness' of higher education, new jobs, etc.

Bob Tremblay is the instructor.l

The June sun shall be hard on the past;

Today is full with the joy of light,

And tomorrow is already warm on our faces.

But even on that final day

As you close the door to the past behind you

and greet the waiting sun,

The past awaits your return.

so we have left a window open

Coach You

Academic Coaching for Students Seeking to Improve Study Skills

As college teacher and Life Coach, I experience every year that many high school graduates are unprepared for college work.

They lack essential study skills such as organization, time management, independent study and note taking.

Just like a coach in any sport, my goal as an Academic Life Coach is to help students perform to the best of their abilities.

Call me for a free consultation or email.
